

SUMMER + FALL TRAINING SERIES

Ethics in Prevention

by Erin Tegge, AM, LSW & Cole Thompson

Thu, Jun 6 | 9:30am-12:30pm

Evanston Library, Falcon Room

Learn the key components of evidence-based substance use prevention and strategies endorsed by SAMHSA. Discuss how to apply IAODAPCA's Prevention Code of Ethics to your projects, as well as what community resources are currently available for struggling teens and adults.

MAT: Fact vs. Fiction

by Luana Lienhart, OFS, LCSW

Thu, Sep 5 | 9:30am-12:30pm

Evanston Library, Falcon Room

Understand the history and benefits of Medication-Assisted Treatment (MAT) and how to debunk the misconceptions surrounding MAT. Determine how to identify patients that are appropriate for MAT.

The Mandated Client:

Challenges & Opportunities

by Christine McCall, LCSW, CADC; Maureen

McDonnell, MPH & Carlos Rodriguez, CADC-ATE

Thu, Aug 1 | 9:30am-12:30pm

Evanston Library, Falcon Room

Understand strategies to work with mandated clients and what evidence-based interventions to use to build engagement. Build awareness about one's own bias and transference, and the importance of working effectively with mandated clients.

Caring for Ourselves, Caring for Our Clients: Intro to Enneagrams

by Sarah Anker, LCSW

Thu, Oct 3 | 9:30am-12:30pm

Evanston Library, Falcon Room

Learn the basics of the Enneagram, a powerful and detailed personality test. Discover how to utilize it for your own self-awareness and self-reflection, as well as how to use it during sessions with your clients.

Each session is 3 CEUs and free-of-charge
RSVP by email: sanker@peerservices.org

